Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-000356

Dear Mr. Lawrence Childs (Renaissance Police Officer's Association):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on November 18, 2022, in which you seek “all documentation related to Renaissance Police Officers Association (union) and Renaissance Center Management Company (employer), G4S Secure Solutions (former joint employer), and/or General Motors Company (joint employer) including but not limited to NLRB cases 07-CA-213631, 07-CA-220648, 07-CB-220244, 07-CB-213657, and 07-CA-208460.” You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on November 18, 2022. On November 28, 2022, in a telephone call with a member of my staff, you narrowed your request to all Charges, Amended Charges, disposition letters, including withdrawals, and Settlement Agreement, if any in Renaissance Center Management Company, Case Nos. 07-CA-208460, 07-CA-213631, and 07-CA-220648, and Renaissance Police Officers Association (RPOA), Case Nos. 07-CB-213657 and 07-CB-220244.

A search of the Agency’s electronic casehandling system, NxGen, has been conducted per your narrowed request. This search has located the specified requested records, which are attached. Please note there were no settlement agreements in any of these cases.

After a review, I have determined that portions of the attached records are exempt from disclosure under Exemptions 6 and 7(C) of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C)). Specifically, redactions have been made to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests “from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you “will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought.” 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

One hour of professional time was expended in searching for and reviewing for release the requested material. Accordingly, please remit $37.00.
